Introduction

Your service committee can bring the A.A. message to professionals and to students at professional schools in your community, helping them to understand how and why A.A. works.

A.A. has always valued friends in all professional fields. These associations have been mutually beneficial and completely in keeping with the A.A. Traditions.

Introduction

Members of District and Group C.P.C. committees inform professionals and future professionals about A.A. — what we are, where we are, what we can do, and what we cannot do.

They attempt to establish better communication between A.A.s and professionals, and to find simple, effective ways of cooperating without affiliating.

Developing Your Committee

How To Get Started

- If your District or Group has created the position of CPC Chair (some entities combine CPC and PI), you will first want to identify who your committee members are:
 - At the District: all GSR's or group CPC Chairs or representatives who are interested in doing your committees work.
 - At the Group: any group members who are interested in doing your committees work.

How To Get Started

Once you have your committee, you will want to set a committee meeting schedule for the year. Make sure you communicate that information well (at the District with your DCM, or at your group, with your group members.

Committee Goals

How To Get Started

At your first committee meeting, you will want to work with your committee to set the goals or actions you want to take as a committee.

If you aren't sure where to start, District CPC Chairs can reach out to their Area CPC Chair for some guidance on this. If you are a group CPC Chair, you can reach out to your District and Area CPC Chair for assistance.
